VERMONT GOLF AT YOUR DOORSTEP

Some of Vermont's finest golf courses are literally at your doorstep when you stay at The Inn of the Six Mountains, one of New England's premier golf destinations. The Inn sits grandly on Hole 6 of the Killington Golf Course. Green Mountain National is also located in Killington, just minutes away. A short drive north on scenic Route 100 is White River Golf Course, great for families, couples or those looking to play a round in under two hours. In all, more than 15 courses are within an hour's drive of the Inn.

Killington Golf Course

Geoffrey Cornish skillfully designed this 18-hole course to take full advantage of the awe-inspiring mountain terrain with breathtaking panoramas and spectacular views of the second-highest peak in Vermont.

Green Mountain National

The Green Mountain National course offers solitude and a private golf experience, on a public course, that challenges players of all abilities.

White River Golf Course

This regulation 9-hole golf course features panoramic views from every hole. Recent design changes and improvements make this a relaxing course to play.
